STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES AND/OR SPECIFIC EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS (SEN)

Students with disabilities and/or Specific Educational Support Needs (SEN) can contact the Diversity Unit (udiversidad [arroba] ujaen [punto] es (udiversidad[at]ujaen[dot]es)) and the Student Support and Assistance Service (diversidad [arroba] ujaen [punto] es (diversidad[at]ujaen[dot]es)) to receive the necessary guidance and advice to enable them to make the most of their educational process and, where appropriate, in accordance with Article 37.2 of Organic Law 2/2023, of March 22, on the University System, they may request the Report on Specific Educational Support Needs (SEN Report), which will establish, if applicable, the necessary reasonable adjustments (both curricular and methodological, to teaching materials, teaching methods and the evaluation system) that guarantee an inclusive, accessible and adaptable university education, on equal terms with the rest of the student body.

The NEAE Report is an official document. The teaching team responsible for the course guides will implement the approved reasonable adjustments after notifying the Center and the course coordinator.

The processing of information about these students, in compliance with the Organic Law on Data Protection (LOPD), is strictly confidential.

Students who need it can contact the Student Support and Assistance Service (Unit for Attention to Students with Specific Educational Support Needs - NEAE)
