Cooperation Agreement between

UNIVERSITY OF JAEN

and

FH AACHEN UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

FH AACHEN
UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

Article 1

Aims of the cooperation

It is the aim of the co-operation to intensify the collaboration in teaching, research and development between the University of Jaén and FH Aachen - University of Applied Sciences, Faculty of Business Studies, thereby promoting the economic and cultural exchange between both countries.

Article 2

Type of activities

The cooperation, which is carried out through specified projects and within the framework of academic collaboration, includes the exchange of lecturers, students and academic staff, the development of joint curricula, double degree programmes as well as knowledge transfer. Other institutions may participate, based on mutual agreement. An integration of business and industry is aimed at.

Article 3

Cooperation measures

International study programme (double degree)

a) Students from the University of Jaen who have completed their first two years of studies (120 ECTS Credits) successfully according to the regulations of their home university can enrol in the international programme and complete their third year of studies at FH Aachen.

Students from FH Aachen who have completed their first three years of studies (180 ECTS Credits see annex 1) successfully according to the regulations of their home university can enrol in the international programme and complete their final year of studies at the University of Jaen.

b) During the third year of studies Jaen students must study according to the study plan (annex 1) and shall complete 60 ECTS at FH Aachen.

During the fourth year of studies FH Aachen students must study according to the study plan (annex 1) and shall complete 60 ECTS at the University of Jaen.

c) In the final year students from both Universities will study at the University of Jaen and write a thesis which shall be assessed jointly by examiners from the University of Jaén and FH Aachen. Students who meet the examination regulations of both institutions shall receive two academic degrees:

The Bachelor of Science (BSc.) from FH Aachen and "Grado en Administración y Dirección de Empresas" or "Grado en Finanzas y Contabilidad" from University of Jaén.

d) Furthermore both institutions endeavour to enable qualified students of both institutions to proceed with consecutive Master studies which result into a Master Degree.

Exchange Semester

In the case of a semester based exchange at the partner university, students will receive recognition from their home institution for their academic performance abroad in accordance with the respective ECTS Learning Agreement.

The partner institutions agree to mutually recognise the credits for studies completed at each institution and will adopt the European Credit Transfer system for granting the relevant credits.

Article 4

Examination regulations and other conditions

- 1) Admission to the study programme is undertaken by the home institution which also has to consider competences such as openness towards other cultures, study performance and language ability.
- 2) The language proficiency of the students in the study programme will be examined and assessed by the home institution.
- 3) The host institution will use its best efforts in assisting exchange students in finding accommodation.
- 4) Living expenses (accommodation and food as well as travelling expenses) are to be paid by the exchange student.
- 5) The host institution undertakes to provide performance records including marks and supporting documentation (if applicable) to the home institution within two month after the student has taken the respective examination.

Article 5

Fees

No tuition fees will be charged at the respective universities. Students studying at FH Aachen however must pay a fee for the student union/public transport. Students graduating at University of Jaen must pay a graduation fee.

Article 6

Capacity

The number of incoming and outgoing students in the study programme should not exceed 6 students. The number of study places can be increased by mutual agreement. They do not have to match exactly but the number of exchange students should balance out over a period of three consecutive years.

Article 7

Coming into effect and period of validity

The agreement will be valid for a period of five years and will come into effect on the day of signing. It will be automatically extended on a year-to-year basis if not terminated in writing three months before the end of the fifth year or if not terminated by one of the partners three months towards the end of the year. In case of termination individual projects already started are to be completed according to the work programmes or to be concluded by mutual agreement.

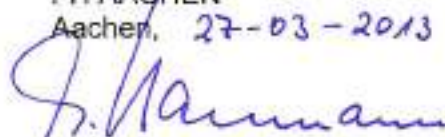

Students who are enrolled in one of the agreed programmes at the time when the agreement ends are entitled to complete their studies within the framework of the exchange programme at the partner university.

Article 8

During their stay, the host students are subject to the internal regulations of the respective university. They have the same rights and responsibilities as the local students (use of the library, the canteen, the sport facilities etc.)
