UNI-Q is a start-up company located at the Dortmund Airport. Specialized in deal blogs, we are searching the internet 24/7 for the best deals and post them on our blog and social networks. Our biggest fish is Urlaubsguru.de. Within just four years we have grown from a two-person-business to one of Germany's most successful travel blogs. But Germany was not enough. In 2015 we were voted as both the best and most popular travel website of the year. Until today the Guru has expanded to twelve other countries. Besides travel deals, we also run blogs advertising fashion, sport, cruise and pet deals, called Schnäppchenfee, Captain-Kreuzfahrt, Mein-Haustier and Prinz-Sportlich.
