

Warm Greetings from Thessaloniki!

The Alexander Technological Educational Institute of Thessaloniki (ATEI-Th) is pleased to invite you and your colleagues, faculty and administrative staff, to participate and share your story and field of expertise with our students and colleagues, in the 2nd International Week of ATEI-Th, which is organized within the framework of the Erasmus+ program, from the 21st to the 25th of May 2018 in Thessaloniki, Greece.

This year's inspirational motto will be: “Sharing ideas can build bridges and strong bonds between universities for a sustainable future”.

We would kindly invite our guest speakers to deliver lectures lasting from 60 to 90 minutes long, exposing our students to different teaching approaches, allowing them to learn subjects viewed under alternative perspectives and, thus, supporting and promoting their capacities building.

All lectures must be held in English, covering mainly the following topics:

- Automation Engineering - Civil Engineering - Electronics Engineering - Informatics Engineering - Automotive Engineering
- Nutrition and Dietetics – Food Technology – Agriculture Technology
- Business – Tourism and hospitality – Advertising – Library Science and Information Systems - -Accounting and finance
- Physiotherapy – Nursing – Midwifery- Laboratories Studies- Early Childhood Care and Education - Aesthetics and Cosmetology

Online registration will be available from the 11th to the 31st of January 2018, and when registering you will be also asked to provide some details about your lecture. There will be additional workshops, in more specific fields of interest, available for faculty and administrative staff. Confirmations will be sent by February 12th, 2018.

If you are interested in participating in our International Week please keep in mind that a limited number of places are available. Therefore we may not be able to accept all applications received (a maximum of 2 persons per institution will be accepted).

In case you have any questions or concerns about our International Week please do not hesitate to contact us using the following emails:

socrates@teithe.gr erasmusplus@admin.teithe.gr

We are looking forward to your visit!