

“Wow, Canton” Summer Camp Program

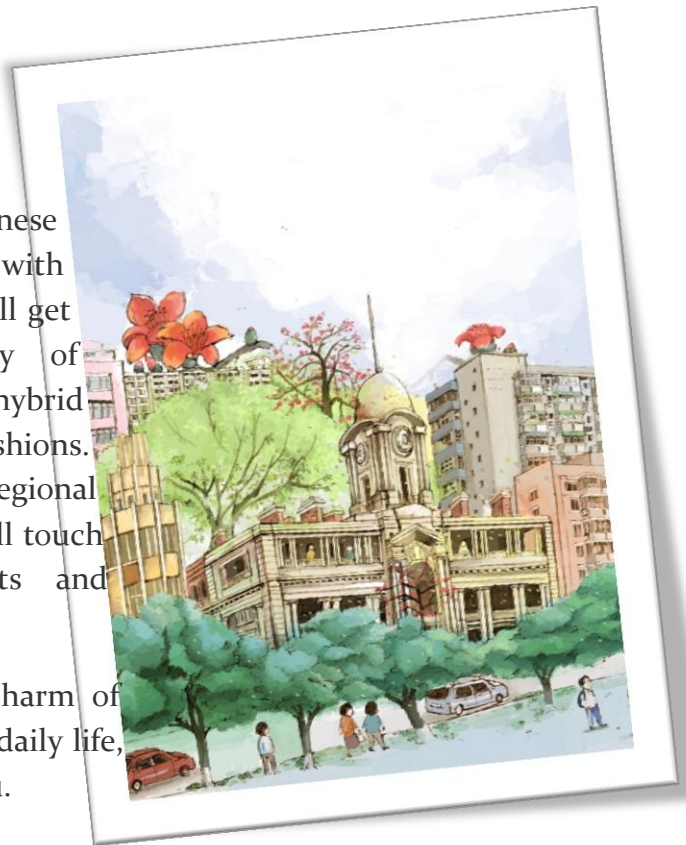

School of Tourism Management, South China Normal University, Guangdong

Wow, Canton. It's a 14-day summer camp for you to discover the natural and cultural heritage in the Pearl River Delta, one of the cradles of overseas Chinese. The program offers lectures as to Chinese national and regional cultures.

What's more, a variety of activities and workshops on and off campus, like Chinese tea ceremony, traditional costume, etc. are part of the program.

You will involve with young Chinese volunteers. Wonderful field trips coping with the lecture topic are on offer too. You will get around Guangzhou, the capital city of Guangdong (Canton), to experience the hybrid gene of historic heritage and new art fashions. Beyond Guangzhou, we'll get to a regional cultural heritage city, Foshan, where you'll touch the charms of Chinese pottery arts and handcrafts.

The program has three modules, the Charm of Chinese traditions, the beauty of Canton daily life, and the commercial culture of Guangzhou.
