Subject coordinator: RAFAEL MORENO DEL CASTILLO

Department/Centre: Department of Didactic of Musical, Plastic and Body Expression/ Faculty of Humanities and Educational Sciences

Because of the health crisis caused by the COVID-19, the teaching staff responsible for the subjects has carried out an adaptation of the academic criteria in accordance with the guidelines of the Andalusian framework document on adaptation criteria of 11 April 2020 and the Guide for the adaptation of teaching and evaluation in the University of Jaén before the exceptional situation provoked by the Covid-19 during the academic year 2019-2020 (approved by the Governing Council on 20 April 2020). These addenda make it possible to document with evidence the contingency plans adopted, and the dissemination and publicity measures established for students, teachers and society in general.

1. BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF CHANGES IN CONTENT AND/OR COMPETENCIES
(Make changes to the original teaching guide)

There are no changes with regard to the original course syllabus.

2. CHANGES IN TEACHING METHODOLOGY (Introducing changes from the original teaching guide)

In relation to the modifications that have occurred in the methodological section, we indicate the following:

A01. Exhibition classes in large group: * MA01- Master classes, conferences, ... There have been NO changes except for the means by which they have been carried out. Theory classes have been held through Meet Hangouts synchronously.

A02. Classes in practical groups: * MA02 - Practical activities, seminars, ... Regarding this section, NO changes have been made.

A03. Group and individual tutoring: * M08 Supervision of works * M09 Clarification of doubts. There have been no major changes. The only modifications have been the means used online for their development.

3. CHANGES IN TRAINING ACTIVITIES (Introducing changes from the original teaching guide)

There are no changes with regard to the original course syllabus. - The online videoconference system GSuite Meet has substituted face-to-face interaction in the same official week days and times established in the official timetables.

4. CHANGES TO THE EVALUATION SYSTEM (Making changes to the original teaching guide)

The evaluation system of the subject Physical Activity and Health is marked by its practical nature and hence the importance of attending the theoretical and practical classes. In this sense, as found in the teaching guide, the conditioning factor of 20% of attendance to opt for a continuous evaluation system with different sections or an evaluation system through a single exam with 100% of the total mark is removed. Therefore, the course will be developed through a continuous evaluation process in its entirety and detailed in the following table:

ADAPTED EVALUATION SYSTEM

1. ONLINE EXAM (30% - 40%)
2. WORKS (60 -70%)
 - Individual and group work (40% -50%)
 - Follow-up activities and active participation in classes (10% - 20%)

This evaluation system will be applied for the Ordinary Call II (May-June) of the academic year. For the extraordinary call (June-July) the students who present will have as their only assessment instrument the online exam, that is, it will correspond to 100% of the grade.

5. TEMPORALIZATION (Introducing changes from the original teaching guide)

There are no changes with regard to the original course syllabus.

6. RESOURCES AND INFRASTRUCTURE (Introduce changes from the original teaching guide)

Virtual platforms, google digital resources and other educational apps have been used.
