Prospective students

We would like to welcome you to the University of Jaén, a modern university combining strong local engagement with internationally relevant teaching and research. We're the top university in Andalusia and the sixth best university in Spain in terms of our contribution to national development, according to the 2016 Ranking from the CYD Foundation. The Shanghai Ranking 2015 placed us among the 100 best universities in the world in the field of Computer Science.

Despite our regional, national and international visibility, the University of Jaén is also a friendly university that takes good care of its students. You'll work side-by-side with lecturers and choose from an ample range of educational, cultural and other activities to build your own comprehensive learning programme, going far beyond mere academic skills to enable you to reach your full personal and professional potential. That's our promise to you and your future.

Studying at the University of Jaén is an opportunity to be part of a lively, multicultural university community that prioritises your future prospects at all times. More than 50,000 satisfied graduates are proof that our method works – join us and become a member of the #UJAGeneration.
