Presentation

The University of Jaén's Statistical Yearbook provides detailed statistical information on structure, personnel, and key performance indicators in the areas of the teaching, research, and outreach at this institution.

Adhering to the University of Jaén's policy of transparency, the publication of the yearbook provides both the university community and society in general with detailed information on the progress made by the institution in terms of key performance indicators.