Work and Research at the UJA

"Work and Research at the UJA" is the central access point to services, resources, and policies supporting research careers at the University of Jaén, within the framework of the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R) and the implementation of the European Charter for Researchers.

This platform serves as a digital welcome guide for researchers at all stages of their careers (R1–R4), providing key information before joining, during their stay, and throughout their professional development at the UJA.
