

Retirement pensions

Researchers employed by the University of Jaén will be automatically registered with the National Social Security System. This system provides employees and their families with access to healthcare in Spain and to a series of social benefits when needed. Via this system, all workers contribute to the social security system. At UJA, social security contributions will be automatically deducted from your monthly pay.

The Social Security System offers four main types of economic benefits: pensions, grants, compensation and other benefits (such as unemployment benefits). As the EURAXESS Spain website explains, you can apply for your retirement pension when you reach a certain age, terminate (or have terminated) all or part of the employment activity for which you were registered on the Social Security System and provide documentary proof of the contribution period in question.

Contributory pensions for members of the Social Security System can be applications if the following age requirements and minimum contribution period are met, as described on the Social Security website:

The screenshot shows the official website of the Spanish Social Security system. At the top, there is a header with the Spanish flag, the text 'GOBIERNO DE ESPAÑA' and 'MINISTERIO DE INCLUSIÓN, SEGURIDAD SOCIAL Y MIGRACIONES', and the logo 'Seguridad Social'. To the right of the logo are links for 'Sugerencias y quejas', 'Consultas', a search icon, and 'Castellano v'. Below the header is a navigation bar with icons and labels for 'Inicio', 'Conócenos', 'Trabajadores' (which is highlighted), 'Pensionistas', and 'Empresarios'. A dark blue breadcrumb trail reads: 'Inicio / Trabajadores / Prestaciones / Pensiones de Trabajadores / Jubilación / Régimen General / Jubilación ordinaria / Requisitos'. The main heading is 'Requisitos'. Below this heading is a list of requirements:

- ▶ Edad
- ▶ Período mínimo de cotización
- ▶ Hecho causante

Your contributions will depend on your gross monthly salary (updated information about social security contributions can be found on the Ministry of Inclusion, Social Security and Migration website).
