

Institutional Projection

The Unit of Institutional Projection is responsible for the management of the Institution's internal (university communication) and the external (the media) communication, as well as strengthening and ensuring the identity and corporate image of the University,