Sa'di and Hafez Two great poets of Persia

Human beings are members of a whole,
In creation of one essence and soul.

If one member is afflicted with pain,
Other members uneasy will remain.

If you've no sympathy for human pain,
The name of human you cannot retain!

که در آفرینش ز یک گوهرند
دگر عضو ها را نماند قرار
نشاید که نامت نهند آدمی

بنی آدم اعضای یک پیکرند
چو عضوی به درد آورد روزگار
تو کز محنت دیگران بی غمی

Sa'di and Hafez Two great poets of Persia

The literal translation of the above is as follows:

"The children of Adam are the members of one another,
since in their creation they are of one essence.
When the conditions of the time brings a member to pain,
the other members will suffer from discomfort.
You, who are indifferent to the misery of others,
it is not fitting that they should call you a human being."

The poem is also inscribed on a large hand-made carpet installed in 2005 on the wall of a meeting room in the United Nations building in New York City
