Formación: Scientific research in databases related to the humanities, history, and education

19/11/2026

Imagen de Darius Zsankowski. Atlas abierto con unas gafas

This training session is intended for the entire university community interested in the fields of History, Archaeology, Anthropology, Geography, the Humanities, the Social Sciences, and other related disciplines. We will present various databases that allow you to find evidence-based information, helping to significantly improve the development of academic work, such as the Bachelor's Thesis (TFG), the Master's Thesis (TFM), and scientific research projects.

Upon registration, you will receive an email with an invitation that you can add to your calendar.

Fecha y hora: 25 nov 2026 13:00. Inscripción

Duración: 45 minutos.