

HUM-651 Psychosocial Analysis of Behavior in light of the New Social Reality

Coordinator: Dr. Esther López Zafra (elopez [arroba] ujaen [punto] es)

The “Psychosocial Analysis of Behavior in light of the New Social Reality” research group is engaged in training the variables that impact on behavior in order to improve interaction with the productive, healthcare and educational sector as well as the general public domain.

Research lines

- Emotional Intelligence
- Transformational leadership
- Gender violence and intra-family violence
- Forensic psychological assessment
- Healthy Organizations
- Work security and laboral risk prevention
- Job incivility

Spanish website: <https://bit.ly/2BweyOS>