Net4Society has published the short version of "Opportunities for SSH researchers in Horizon 2020" calls document

Start date
04/05/2018 - 13:00

The "short" version "Opportunities for SSH researchers in Horizon 2020" calls document is compiled and published on the Net4Society website. This shorter (only 56 pages), searchable by keyword document is available for download at www.net4society.eu. As with its longer predecessor, this publication profiles where within the latest Work Programme (WP 2018-2020), researchers in the social sciences and humanities interested in applying for EU funding can access chances currently open to them.
